Personally appeared before me, A. M. Carroll, a Notary Public, in and for said County and State, duly elected and qualified, the undersigned W. H. Howe, a citizen of said State and County, who is personally well known to me, and is the same W. H. Howe, who on the 13th day of October, 1899, filed his application with the Department of State at Washington, for a passport for himself, to be accompanied by his wife, and minor daughter, and made oath in due form of law that the naturalization certificate issued to his father in his life time has been lost or mislaid so that it is impossible for him to obtain the same and forward it to the State Department as requested; and, further, that his father died in the State of Pennsylvania on the 5th day of July 1899. And he, the said W. H. Howe not knowing the time or State when and where said certificate of naturalization was issued to his said father, finds it impossible now to have a certified copy of same delivered to said State Department.

He further makes oath that his father was a citizen of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, for a great many years, and until the date of his death; that as such, he voted and exercised the rights of citizenship as a citizen of the United States, in a full and complete manner, by voting and otherwise.

He further makes oath, that he has resided in the United States since he was less than one year of age, and since his majority has voted and exercised all the rights of citizenship; also that for more than twenty years past he has resided, and now resides in the city of Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee, and has voted and exercised his rights as a citizen in said city and State, for and during that period.

Rule 6078.

Rules Governing the Granting and Issuing of Passports in the United States.

1. By whom issued.—No one but the Secretary of State may grant and issue passports in the United States.—Revised Statutes, secs. 4075, 4078.

A citizen of the United States desiring to procure a passport while he is temporarily abroad should apply to the diplomatic representative of the United States in the country where he happens to be; or, in the absence of a diplomatic representative, to the consul-general of the United States; or, in the absence of both, to the consul of the United States. The necessary statements may be made before the nearest consular officer of the United States.

2. To citizens only.—The law forbids the granting of a passport to any person who is not a citizen of the United States.—Revised Statutes, sec. 4076.

A person who has only made the declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States can not receive a passport.

3. Applications.—A citizen of the United States in this country in order to procure a passport must make a written application, in the form of an affidavit, to the Secretary of State.

The affidavit must be attested by an officer authorized to administer oaths, and if he has an official seal it must be affixed. If he has no seal, his official character must be authenticated by certificate of the proper legal officer.

If the applicant signs by mark, two attesting witnesses to his signature are required.

The applicant is required to state the date and place of his birth, his occupation, and the place of his permanent residence, and to declare that he goes abroad for temporary sojourn and intends to return to the United States with the purpose of residing and performing the duties of citizenship therein.

The applicant must take the oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States.

The application must be accompanied by a description of the person applying, and should state the following particulars, viz: Age, ———; stature, — feet — inches (English measure); forehead, ———; eyes, ———; nose, ———; mouth, ———; chin, ———; hair, ———; complexion, ———; face, ———.

The application must be accompanied by a certificate from at least one credible witness that the applicant is the person he represents himself to be, and that the facts stated in the affidavit are true to the best of the witness's knowledge and belief.

4. Native citizens.—An application containing the information indicated by rule 3, will be sufficient evidence in the case of native citizens.

5. A person born abroad whose father was a native citizen of the United States.—In addition to the statements required by rule 3, his application must show that his father was born in the United States, resided therein, and was a citizen at the time of the applicant's birth. The Department may require that this affidavit be supported by that of one other citizen acquainted with the facts.

6. Naturalized citizens.—In addition to the statements required by rule 3, a naturalized citizen must transmit his certificate of naturalization, or a duly certified copy of the court record thereof, with his application. It will be returned to him after inspection. He must state in his affidavit when and from what port he emigrated to this country, what ship he sailed in, where he has lived since his arrival in the United States, when and before what court he was naturalized, and that he is the identical person described in the certificate of naturalization. The signature to the application should conform in orthography to the applicant's name as written in his certificate of naturalization.

7. The wife or widow of a naturalized citizen.—In addition to the statements required by rule 3, she must transmit for inspection her husband's certificate of naturalization, must state that she is the wife (or widow) of the person described therein, and must set forth the facts of his emigration, naturalization, and residence, as required in the rule governing the application of a naturalized citizen.

8. The child of a naturalized citizen claiming citizenship through the naturalization of the parent.—In addition to the statements required by rule 3, the applicant must state that he or she is the son or daughter, as the case may be, of the person described in the certificate of naturalization, which must be submitted for inspection, and must set forth the facts of emigration, naturalization, and residence, as required in the rule governing the application of a naturalized citizen.

9. Expiration of passport.—A passport expires two years from the date of its issuance. A new one will be issued upon a new application, and, if the applicant be a naturalized citizen, the old passport will be accepted in lieu of a certificate of naturalization, if the application upon which it was issued is found to contain sufficient information as to the naturalization of the applicant.

10. Wife, minor children, and servants.—When the applicant is accompanied by his wife, minor children, or servant, who is an American citizen, it will be sufficient to state the fact, giving the respective ages of the children and the citizenship of the servant, when one passport will suffice for all. For any other person in the party a separate passport will be required. A woman's passport may include her minor children and servant under the above-named conditions.

11. Professional titles.—They will not be inserted in passports.

12. Fee.—By act of Congress approved March 23, 1888, a fee of one dollar is required to be collected for every citizen's passport. That amount in currency or postal money order should accompany each application. Orders should be made payable to the Disbursing Clerk of the Department of State. Drafts or checks will not be accepted.

13. Blank forms of application.—They will be furnished by the Department to persons who desire to apply for passports, upon their stating whether they are native or naturalized citizens or claim through the naturalization of husband or parent. Forms are not furnished, except as samples, to those who make a business of procuring passports.

14. Address.—Communications should be addressed to the Department of State, Passport Division, and each communication should give the post-office address of the person to whom the answer is to be directed.

15. Rejection of application.—The Secretary of State may refuse to issue a passport to anyone who, he has reason to believe, desires it for an unlawful or improper purpose, or who is unable or unwilling to comply with the rules.

Section 4075 of the Revised Statutes of the United States providing that "the Secretary of State may grant and issue passports, and cause passports to be granted, issued, and verified in foreign countries by such diplomatic or consular officers of the United States, and under such rules as the President shall designate and prescribe for and on behalf of the United States," the foregoing rules are hereby prescribed for the granting and issuing of passports in the United States.

The Secretary of State is authorized to make regulations on the subject of issuing and granting passports additional to these rules and not inconsistent with them.

Hon. David J. Hill,

Assistant Secretary of State,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—

Your favor of the 27th ult., with enclosure there stated, duly received. Since receiving your letter, by the use of the telegraph and the mails, I have today received from Pittsburg, Pa., the original naturalization paper of William Howe, the father of W. H. Howe, the applicant for a passport.

I now here re-enclose you all of the papers which you enclosed me, together with said naturalization paper of William Howe.

You will see from an examination of the application of W. H. Howe, that he was born August 20, 1836, removing to this country with his parents when he was one year old, you will further find from an examination of the naturalization paper that his father was naturalized on February 22, 1848, (making him a good citizen, because that was Washington's birthday) I also here enclose the affidavit of J. H. Howe, proving the finding of this naturalization paper, among the papers of William Howe, the father of W. H. Howe. This is proof complete as to the naturalization of Mr. W. H. Howe's father before Mr. W. H. Howe reached the age of twenty one years, and I will now, therefore appreciate it very much if you will, immediately on receipt of these papers, forward the passports as applied for by Mr. W. H. Howe, to me here, that I may enclose same to him at Japan.

I would also be pleased if you will at the same time return to me the naturalization paper of William Howe, as we would like to file the same away for safe keeping for future use.

Thanking you in advance for your favor, I remain,

Dear Sir:-

I herewith enclose you the papers relative to the application by Mr. W. H. Howe, of this city, to the Department of State at Washington, for a passport for himself, wife, and minor daughter.

As you will see, this application was made on the 13th, but returned from Washington October 14th, with the statement that the application was defective, for the reason that it was not accompanied by the requisite proof of Mr. Howe's citizenship.

Since the return of said application, Mr. Howe has made affidavit as to his citizenship, and reciting the facts of the naturalization of his father, and of Mr. Howe's inability to secure a copy of the naturalization papers.

I have known Mr. Howe personally for twenty odd years, and also know of his exercising the rights of citizenship by voting, and otherwise, and if necessary would be ready to make affidavit thereto.

As you, yourself are personally acquainted with Mr. Howe, I felt that a personal communication from you, endorsed on the back of his application, directed to the Secretary of State, would secure for Mr. Howe, without further delay, the passport desired, and I suggested to him, and he requested me to write you in regard thereto.

I would appreciate it very much, as would also Mr. Howe, if you would make the endorsement on his application, and return same to me here, and I will forward the papers to Washington.

Mr. Howe expects to leave Nashville tomorrow, the 20th inst., and hopes to have the passport papers reach him at San Francisco, by November 1st., and I would, therefore, thank you for an early reply.

Frank A. Branagan, Esq.,
Chief, Bureau of Accounts, and Disbursing Clerk,
Department of State, Washington, D.C.,

Dear Sir:-

Yours of 26th ult. to hand in which you return the application of Mr. Gustav H. Mosler for passport, and state the reason you return it is that inasmuch as Mr. Gustav H. Mosler was born in Munich, his father being at the time of his birth a citizen of the United States through the naturalization of his father, you desire the date when Mr. Gustav Mosler's grandfather was naturalized. In answer would say that although we have made various inquiries we are unable to get the date of such naturalization or to find a witness cognizant with the facts. We herewith enclose, together with the application for passport, a passport granted to Mr. Henry Mosler, the father of Mr. Gustav H. Mosler, the applicant, in 1874. We have also, if you desire same forwarded, a passport granted to Mr. Henry Mosler, by the United States in February 1863, being passport No. 9560, granted by William H. Seward, then Secretary of State.

We believe that you will consider the passport which we enclose, and also the other one which we have, sufficient evidence of the fact that Mr. Henry Mosler, the father of the applicant, is a citizen of the United States and that he has been a citizen for many years; that he is practically a native citizen of the United States and that you will require no further information as to proof of citizenship.

Mr. Henry Mosler's father having died many years since and having been naturalized many, many years ago in the United States, it is practically impossible to obtain his naturalization papers.

We therefore herewith return the application for passport, together with the fee, $1.00, and also the passport granted to Mr. Henry Mosler, which kindly return to us, and we trust that we will also receive the passport for Mr. Gustav H. Mosler.

As we understand it, the son of a citizen of the United States born when his father was a citizen of the United States, although out of the limits of the United States, if the father resided at any time within the United States, is a citizen of the United States. Mr. Gustav H. Mosler has lived here some time; has always considered himself a citizen of the United States; is the son of a citizen of the United States who served in the Civil war and a member of the Loyal Legion of the United States.

Very respectfully yours,

Alex. Blumenstiel

To the Hon Secretary of State
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir: The accompanying Certificate of Citizenship for John Winter Munson are the papers for the father of Peter V. Benderson.
John W. Munson's father's name was Mons ~~Benderson~~
But after the laws adopted in the old country (Sweden Denmark &c) the names of the children did not follow that of their parents. So when coming to America he took out his first papers also his Citizenship papers in the name of Munson. This same man Munson is the father of ^{the} applicant for Pension. Peter V. Benderson.

I trust this explanation will be satisfactory

Respectfully
